The estate in ten facts

01 2007 — Carloto Magalhães made the first wine with grapes from the property.

02 The early years — The wine was made at neighbouring Quinta da Canameira.

03 2012 — The estate's cellar was completed.

04 38 hectares — The property includes vines, olive groves, almond trees, pasture and the reservoir.

05 The vineyard — The vineyard area is 22.7 hectares, of which 20.9 are planted.

06 Four hectares of old vines — Over sixty years old, with 46 varieties planted together, some still unidentified.

07 Sheep among the vines — During dormancy, they help control the vegetation.

08 Three ranges — Palato do Côa and Vinha da Migalha come from the estate. Vinhas do Côa brings together grapes from two estates owned by the partners.

09 2025 — The reservoir was built to store water for the vineyard and the animals.

10 1,240 bottles — The production of Vinha da Migalha Tinto 2017, a numbered edition.

Who makes the wine

Carloto Magalhães
WINEMAKER

An agricultural engineer and winemaker, Carloto has advised producers since 1992. He made the estate's first wine in 2007. Today he follows the vineyard and sets the direction of the house wines.

Paulo Schreck
WINEMAKER

Paulo trained in oenology in Sauternes, where he worked four harvests. He has worked exclusively for Palato since 2017. He coordinates viticulture and winemaking with Carloto and looks after the commercial side.

EXPRESSO · 17 SEPTEMBER 2026 · JOÃO PAULO MARTINS

Vinha da Migalha Tinto 2017

«É um tinto cheio de carácter, em que domina a elegância, com moderada extração. Muito prazer na prova de boca, um topo de gama.»

A red full of character, where elegance leads, with moderate extraction. Great pleasure on the palate — a top-of-the-range wine. (Translated from the Portuguese)

«É o que se chama um valor seguro.»

What you would call a safe bet. (Translated from the Portuguese)

PÚBLICO · 25 SEPTEMBER 2026 · JOSÉ AUGUSTO MOREIRA

Palato do Côa Códega do Larinho 2023

«Branco que vai surpreender pelo equilíbrio, envolvência macia e crocante e densidade fresca»

A white that will surprise with its balance, soft and crisp roundness and fresh density (Translated from the Portuguese)

«Há um lado selvagem e vegetal que marca este vinho.»

There is a wild, vegetal side that marks this wine. (Translated from the Portuguese)

«Boa surpresa!»

A good surprise! (Translated from the Portuguese)
